

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday October 26, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Nissan could hire 2,000

Conference prepares leaders

First Novia awards presented

Konami looks to expand into state

Miss. Chemical prices jump

Study: Home violence laws lax

Students, mentors get boost

Editorials

Oops! When we make an error, we want to say so and correct it Shawn McIntosh

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

$1B Nissan plant expected for state

Full story

Why not the Coast?

Editorial

Flag petition drive won't affect panel

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Editorial, October 25, 2000

Desoto Appeal Hernando, Mississippi

Mississippi in line for Nissan plant, 4,000 jobs

TODAY'S EDITORIAL: FLAG FLAP

Insurance changes hit hard with some state employees

DeSoto County looks into online taxpayer program

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Officials: Nissan to build \$1B plant in Mississippi

Flag illustrates the value, rational or not, of our symbols

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

State flag debate reaches Meridian

Full Story

Flag: A time for honest communication, calmly-delivered

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Flag debate doesn't belong in voting booth

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Sid Salter: State judicial integrity drowning

Tim Kalich: Too much spent electing judges

stateline.org

Mississippi Flag Measure Cleared For Vote www.findlaw.com

Birmingham News

Nissan out, Opelika still up

Opinion:

Nice try